LPGA State Farm Classic Accepting Reservations for both S1 and IBM Women's Pro Am

Secure playing positions now for the 35th Anniversary Pro Am events

SPRINGFIELD, IL – The LPGA State Farm Classic is now accepting reservations for the 2010 S1 Women's ProAm, Monday, June 7 and the State Farm Classic Pro Am hosted by IBM, Wednesday, June 9 at Panther Creek Country Club in Springfield. Both events provide area amateurs a chance to play with some of the best golfers in the world while helping to support area charities. The S1 ProAm is a women's only event and will accept 108 female amateurs to play 18 holes with LPGA professionals. The State Farm Classic Pro-Am, hosted by IBM will accept 224 amateurs to be paired with the pros.

"Taking part in a Pro Am event is great way to participate in the celebration of the 35th Anniversary of the State Farm Classic," LPGA State Farm Classic Executive Director Kate Peters said. "Our Pro Am events provide a wonderful opportunity for amateur golfers in Central Illinois to play along side the stars of the LPGA, support an international event that contributes thousands of dollars to the local economy and provides much needed assistance to area charities."

Playing positions in the S1 Women's ProAm are $500 and include one playing position in the S1 Women's Pro-Am, pairings draw party, tee gift package, awards luncheon and hospitality for the player in the LRS Champion's Club throughout the tournament. Special packaging, inclusive of tournament credentials and on-course advertising is available for businesses wishing to sponsor a team. This event is limited to 27 teams and is a LADIES ONLY event.

The State Farm Classic Pro Am hosted by IBM is open to both men and women.
